

LOCAL NEWS.

MONDAY EVENING, FEB. 18, 1895.

Sun rises to-morrow at 6:39; and sets at 5:21. High water 3:45 a. m. and 4:44 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section generally fair; warmer Tuesday morning, probably slightly cooler Tuesday afternoon or evening in the interior; southerly winds shifting to westerly.

I. O. R. M.—The Improved Order of Red Men have established as the initial date of their order the discovery of America, A. D. 1492. The Indians who then lived forty degrees north or south of the equator could not be distinguished in point of color from those immediately under it. One uniform type of red existed, a fact that has been thought to mark the natives or aborigines of this western continent as the descendants of a peculiar race of people. The Red Men's calendar at this time, and in their language, is the four time, and fourth Great Sun, Osceola Tribe, of this city, is the oldest tribe in existence, having been organized A. D. 1845, and will celebrate its semi-centennial Wednesday evening, February 20th, or sleep of the Snow Moon, in an elaborate and appropriate manner. The Opera House has been engaged and its door will be gratuitously thrown open to an invited public to listen to appropriate speeches from prominent members of the order, among whom will be the following well known speakers: Andrew H. Paton, Great Incochnee, G. C. U. S.; Thomas R. Donnelly, National Exemplifier; Chas. C. Conley, G. Chief of Records, G. C. U. S.; John W. Cherry, G. M.; Hon. L. P. Pence, M. C., and Hon. Louis Schlager, M. C., whose theme being interesting, their talks will be undoubtedly humorous, instructive and interesting. As this order aims to be the conservators of American history, and of American character the exemplars, it is distinctly an American fraternity, and it is only upon American soil that the fraternity exists. After the exercises at the Opera House the tribe will visit the visitors and friends will meet at the Old Fellows' Hall and partake of a sumptuous banquet prepared by Messrs. F. Schwab and Chas. Zimmerman. Special arrangements for the comfort and accommodation of all have been made.

DEATH OF MRS. LAW.—Mrs. Louisa Douglas Law, widow of the late Major James O. Law, of Baltimore, and sister of Mr. James S. Douglass of this city, died yesterday at her residence in Baltimore, aged eighty-two years. Funerals will take place Tuesday from her late residence. Mrs. Law was the daughter of the late James Douglas, of this city, and a granddaughter of Jackson Douglass, of Newton, Linavaddy, County Kerry, Ireland, who was an Irish rebel against England in the rebellion of 1798, in which Robert Emmet fought and for which he was hanged. Mr. Douglas, with his family, had to flee to this country to escape, perhaps a similar fate. His granddaughter, Miss Louisa Douglas, was married to Major James Owen Law, her cousin, on January 21, 1830, just fifty-nine years ago, and her husband died on June 6, 1847, forty-eight years ago, after eleven years of happy married life. So Mrs. Law has, therefore, rounded out a half century of widowhood. For nearly a quarter of a century Mrs. Law had resided with her eldest daughter, Mrs. Spear, the wife of James Otis Spear, living a quiet and devoted life, surrounded by her two daughters, Mrs. Spear and Miss Maggie Law, and her grandchildren.

RIVER NOTES.—A letter from King George county says: "The steamer Harry Randall is ice-bound at Colonial Beach, and fears are entertained that it will be seriously damaged by floating ice when a thaw begins. Many dredging vessels were caught out by the sudden freeze, and it is thought that their crews are faring mightily common, for it is feared that their food and fuel are already exhausted, and some of them cannot be reached on account of air-holes in the ice between them and the shore."

"News has just reached here to the effect that the government light house on the Potomac, off Sharnock, this county, has been abandoned by its keepers. Food and fuel were well exhausted, all means of communication cut off by ice, and the possibility of being swept away by floating ice when a thaw begins made the situation anything but envious, and the keepers, foreseeing no bright outlook, and unwilling to run further risks, packed their wearing apparel in satchels and started for land, walking on the ice, one to the Maryland and one to the Virginia shore, where, it is said, they arrived an hour or so later."

DEATHS.—Mr. George T. Price, who had been seriously ill for some time, died at his home on north Fairfax street, shortly after twelve o'clock yesterday. The deceased was 34 years of age and was a quiet and popular gentleman. He had recently been one of the letter carriers of the city, an occupation he had continued in until failing health compelled him to relinquish it. He was at one time secretary of the city democratic committee. He was a member of Potomac Lodge of Odd Fellows, Marley Encampment, Alexandria Council Royal Arcanum and Junior Order of American Mechanics. He was a son of Mr. George E. Price, whose wife died but a few weeks ago, and the entire community, in which they are all so favorably known and esteemed, sincerely sympathize with the stricken family in this second affliction which has followed so close in the wake of the first.

Mrs. Thomas Callis, who had been a sufferer from a chronic complaint recently, died suddenly at her home, on King street, last night.

POLICE COURT.—Mayor Strauss presiding.—The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Peter Chambers, colored, arrested by Lieutenant Smith charged with disorderly conduct at a fire, forfeited $50 collateral.

A man, arrested by Officer Hayes charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

Night Report.—Last night was clear and cold. Twenty lodgers were at the station house.

There is not "enough done" with the firm of I. Schwarz & Son, 518 King street. They are pounding at it every business day in the year. Where your dollars go the farther is where you ought to stop. If you want to save on your purchases don't fail to call on them. Their advertisement in to-day's issue explains all.

Mr. Harlowe and family will later go via Tampa to New Orleans, returning thence via Hot Springs, Ark., to their home in Alexandria. —Ocala Banner.

OPENING THE RIVER.—On Saturday the tug Triton broke a path through the main channel of the river to this city, while the D. M. Key succeeded in opening a track in front of the Washington wharves. Early yesterday afternoon the steamer Norfolk having been ordered to proceed down the river, left Washington and reached this city about three o'clock. She had comparatively little difficulty in making the trip, the Triton, the Key and the Brewerton having already opened the channel. Upon getting ready to leave this port she blew long alarm whistles to caution numbers of people who were on the ice not to cross the channel down which she was about to proceed, and there was a general stampede from the middle of the river to the flats. About half-past three o'clock the Norfolk's lines were thrown off and she started down the river and went along very well in the Brewerton's track, but when nearly off Jones's Point came to a complete standstill, she having become wedged in the heavy ice in that part of the river. She rammed the ice from that time until 6 o'clock, at which time she had proceeded no farther than Fort Washington. At one o'clock this morning she had again come to a standstill off the White House, at which time the steamer Washington, which had been twenty-two hours in getting up the river, came in sight. The latter passed her sister steamer and proceeded to this city, arriving here about two o'clock this morning. The Norfolk went on to her destination in the track made by the Washington. The latter steamer, after stopping here a few minutes, went on to Washington and returned later in the morning and took on freight. She will leave here for Norfolk to-night. The Triton passed down the river this morning. The mild weather of the past few days is having its effect on the ice. It is very thick, however, and it will take a prolonged spell to clear the river.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.—The Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias will hold its next annual convention at Staunton on Tuesday night. All Pythians are interested in the annual recurring meetings of the grand lodge, but particularly is this gathering fraught with interest to those who live in the domain of Virginia. The Grand Chancellor has a very interesting report to make. It will show the numerical growth of the order during the Pythian period now ending. The Grand Keeper of Records and Seal will submit a report showing the financial and statistical standing of the brotherhood, while the Grand Master of Exchequer gives in his report the state of the treasury. But the special feature which will engage the attention of the representatives at this session will be the revision of the constitution. This is a matter of vital importance to the fraternity, not only in this city, but the entire State, and has elicited the earnest thought of all who intend to be present. The representatives from this city are: A. F. Cox and W. H. May, of Oriental; E. R. Boyer, of Mechanics, and Benjamin Florence, of Alexandria Lodge.

To-night representatives of the United Rank of the order will assemble for the formation from the numerous divisions of two regiments instead of one as now, and to constitute them a brigade. This will necessitate the election of brigade officers and the choice of officers for the two regiments. A delegation of officers from Rathbone Division, this city, have gone to Staunton to assist at the annual meeting of the First Virginia Pythian Regiment there.

ICE IN THE BAY.—The steamer Georgia arrived at Baltimore at 4:30 p. m. yesterday from Norfolk, having left there at 4:30 a. m. The steamer encountered ice all the way from the dock at Norfolk to the dock in Baltimore. From Fortres Monroe to Wolf Trap it was almost one continuous gorge. Thence to Smith's Point it was from two inches to six inches thick. Off the Potomac there was a heavy gorge caused by ice from the Potomac river. From the Potomac to Cove Point the ice was from two to six inches thick, and thence up hard ice was encountered as far as Seven Foot Knoll, with frequent gorges as thick as six feet.

Assistant Keeper Kirwan, of the Old Plantation Lighthouse, about three miles south of Cape Charles City, was compelled to abandon the lighthouse yesterday morning at 10 o'clock.

HAND CUT.—Between one and two o'clock yesterday morning William Arrington, son of Alphonso Arrington, went to Dr. Jones's office with the back of his left hand severely cut as if by a sharp knife. He left a trail of blood on the pavement which attracted the attention of passersby early yesterday. He told the doctor that he had fallen down on the ice and that in doing so he had sustained the injury. The doctor dressed the wound which he found to be of a serious nature, the cut being deep and extending from the wrist to the fingers.

THE PEABODY ANNIVERSARY.—To-day being the 100th anniversary of the birth of George Peabody, the philanthropist who did much for education in this country, appropriate observance was made of the day in the public schools of this city. The exercises consisted of recitation of appropriate pieces, a sketch of Peabody's life and extracts from his letters, an extract from an address by Dr. Curry on Peabody, and singing. The pupils of Lee school held their exercises collectively in Peabody Hall.

THE HULL OF THE LADY OF THE LAKE.—The hull of the burned steamer Lady of the Lake sank to the bottom of the river at Washington, at an early hour yesterday. The hull will be at once raised and towed out of the way of navigation. The hull is lying just a few feet beyond the line of the District control of the Potomac and will have to be raised by the War Department and the work will be under the supervision of Maj. Davis. It is estimated to raise the vessel will cost $4,000 or $5,000.

ARMORY HALL.—Saturday night a large audience witnessed Prof. Andrews Horse Show and seemed to be well pleased. The professor handled four horses, among them a well-known balker, and made him answer a few questions by nodding his head. The management has made arrangements with Mayor Strauss to give a benefit to the poor of this city to-night, by which 50 per cent. of the receipts will be turned over to the Mayor to be distributed among the needy.

A RARE OPPORTUNITY.—Mr. Isaac Eichberg's advertisement elsewhere will be read with interest by all desiring bargains in the dry goods line. He has just completed taking an inventory of stock and finds innumerable remnants of all classes of goods which he intends to dispose of at sacrifice prices in order to prepare for the spring trade. This well-known and reliable house is just the place to find bargains at present.

THE WEATHER yesterday was mild, the mercury registering 50°. The high temperature caused much of the snow and ice to melt and the streets in many places in consequence were rendered almost impassable. To day the temperature has not been so high, the mercury not going over 45°, but the thaw continues and it is earnestly hoped that the snow and ice may soon disappear.

YESTERDAY was a bright, pretty day, the mercury running up to 50°—the highest point reached for about three weeks. The mild weather brought many people out of doors who had been confined to their homes for some time and consequently the churches were more largely attended than for several Sundays past. The day was an unusually quiet one.

MONEY RECOVERED.—Mr. Harry Simpson, who was robbed of $290 on Thursday, has recovered the money minus seven dollars. The officers had shadowed the thief so closely that he concluded to return the money to the desk from which he took it and thus escape the consequences. Before doing so, however, he spent seven dollars from the roll.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Diamond, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvellous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succumbing to La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in its results." Trial bottles free at E. S. Leadbetter & Sons' Drug Store. It is the medicine above all others for catarrh, and is worth its weight in gold. I can use Zieg's Cream Balm with safety and it does all that is claimed for it.—B. W. Sperry, Hartford, Conn.

A TEA

Is a pleasant thing; there are high teas, pink teas, 5 o'clock teas, that celestial thinks he has a good tea and there is no reason why you should not have a GOOD TEA also. Good green teas are very hard to get this season. I mean really good teas. I have succeeded, after no little effort, in getting the large stock that is required to supply my tea trade for the crop year. You know that for 27 years I have sold the best teas, and though good teas cost more this year than for several years past, I have not lowered my standard. In fact, I think my 50c tea is better than ever. My BEST GREEN TEA is just what it purports to be, THE VERY BEST,

Then those nice black teas and that superb CEYLON TEA, that is getting to be the fashion.

Recollect that I give better tea at less cost than any one else.
